EXECUTIVE PROTOCOL OF THE GENERAL AGREEMENT FOR COOPERATION BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF ROME "LA SAPIENZA" (ITALY) AND THE MONTENEGRO UNIVERSITY OF PODGORICA (MONTENEGRO)

The Department of Modern and Contemporary History of the University of Rome "La Sapienza", and the Historical Institute of Montenegro of the Montenegro University of Podgorica, in order to put into practice the General Agreement signed on 11th Dec. 2001, as well as considering the development of cultural and scientific cooperation to be of mutual advantage to both Universities and desiring to reinforce such cooperation, agree on the following points:

Art. 1: Scientific and educational cooperation shall be undertaken in the field(s) of:

- a) History and Cultures of Europe;
- b) Civilizations and Studies of Mediterranean Region;
- c) Inter-Adriatic and Italian-Montenegrin Relations;
- d) International Relations, Communitarian Policies and European Process of Enlargement;
- e) Process of Atlantic Integration;
- f) Society and Economy of Balkans and Mediterranean Europe.

Such cooperation shall be carried out on the basis of equal and mutual advantage, reserving the opportunity to define, through mutual consent, further fields of activity. Furthermore, this consent will take into consideration the budget available at that moment in time and the experience acquired by the interested scholars from both Universities.

Art. 2: In order to achieve the objectives set out in the above-mentioned first article, scientific and educational cooperation may be implemented in the following ways:

- a) exchange of visits by scholars;
- b) participation in research programmes;
- c) organization of scientific meetings, seminars and courses on subject(s) laid down in the agreement;
- d) exchange of scientific information and scientific papers.

Art. 3: To implement the afore-mentioned points, it is possible to promote a reciprocal exchange of scientific staff between both Universities, in accordance with the available budget. The contracting parties undertake to cover the cost of round trips undertaken by their own scholars (visiting professors). Stay costs shall be covered by the host University, in accordance with applicable norms and regulations in force in both the University and in the host country. The exchange of scholars, within the conditions stated above, shall, in all circumstances, be based on a condition of reciprocity.

Art. 4: Two months before the presumed starting date of planned activities, the respective scientific scholars involved in the project in both Universities shall make contact, exchanging all the necessary information about procedures, times and everything required for the effective execution of the programme.

The respective scientific scholars responsible for the project are Prof. Antonello Biagini by the University of Rome "La Sapienza" and Prof. Rado Raspopovic by the Montenegro University of Podgorica.

Art. 5: The Universities shall ensure, in the form they deem most suitable, emergency health services for visiting scholars, with the exception of chronic diseases and prostheses.

Art. 6: Each contracting party shall ensure, in compliance with its respective laws and regulations, any kind of assistance and facilitations for scholars temporarily residing on its territory, allowing them to perform the assigned tasks under the provisions of this agreement.

Art. 7: This executive protocol shall remain in force for one year and under approval by both parties, it shall be renewed for an equal period. It will be expired within the termination of the General Agreement.

Art. 8: An arbitrators council, made up of a member chosen by each contracting party and a jointly chosen one, shall resolve any eventual controversy concerning the interpretation and application of this agreement.

Drawn up in Podgorica (Montenegro) in two original copies in English language, both having the same legal validity.
